

That's what happens when someone becomes overwhelmed by his feelings. Honestly, I am disappointed, I thought you'll amuse me a little more. I'll tell you what guarantees the victory, strength and a self-control in all circumstances. If you want to win you don't need more... But to beat your enemy, you also must accept to put in danger lives of people around you... I have aggrieved or killed many people who were enemies and if it's a sin, then I will accept the judgment of Gods but not before purify the world of evil within.

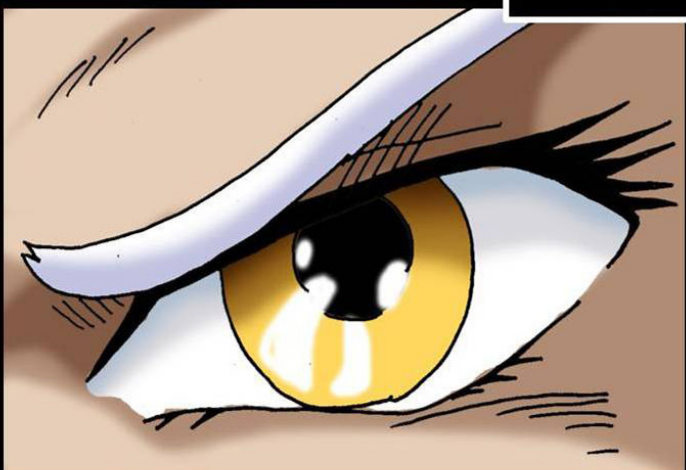

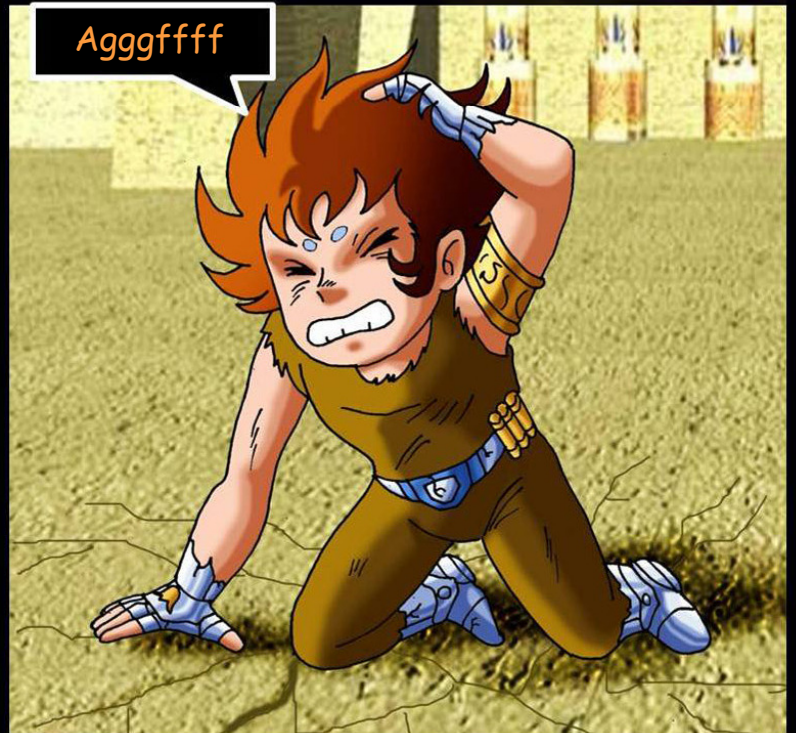

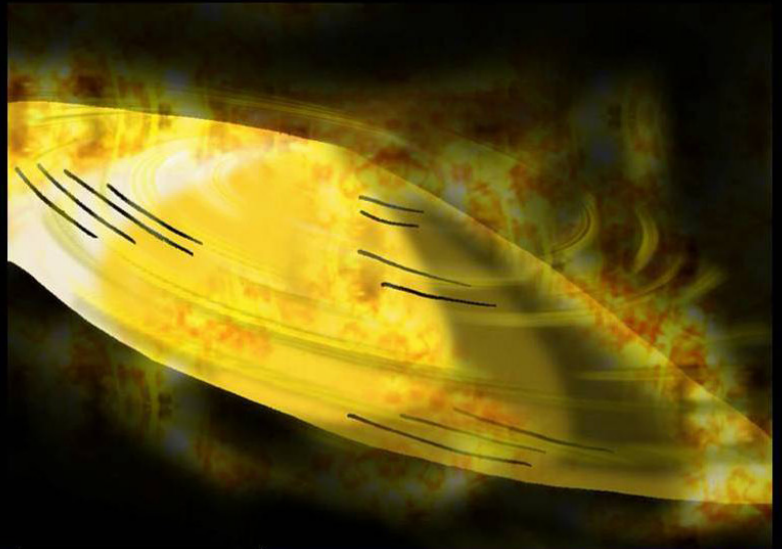

Haaaaaaaaaaaaa !

I'll have fun with you child !

SOLAR DISK'S ROAR !!

Now kid, you'll be devoured by my fire !

But I can't disappoint my friends and my Master.

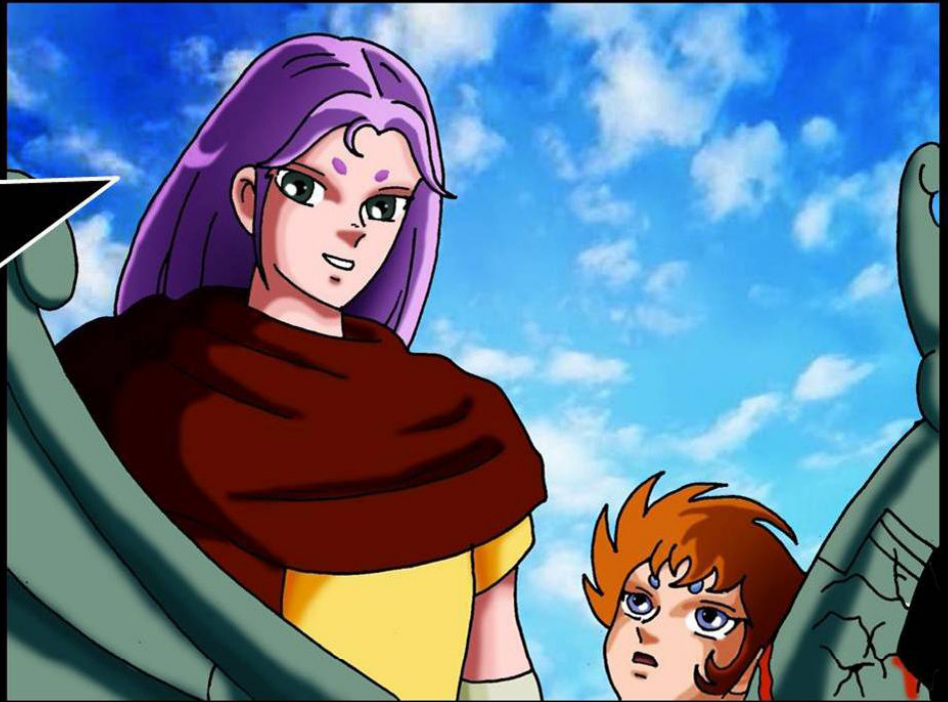

APSET'S CROWN !!

By raising your cosmos to its top, you get the capacity to generate star dust sand, which is used to repair damaged cloths by fights.

But you also can make it strike directly your opponent.

That's why the Stardust Revolution is my most powerful attack.

What I had kept sealed during many years...

...is now your heritage,
make a good use.

Finally, you have been a worthy opponent but now the time has come to end !

FLAMING LION TUSK !!

defeated by these bronze saints...

I'll take care of these intruders.

them, I want to play with these worms...

I burnt all my cosmo, I can't fight against another opponent...

Don't worry my friends, I'll do it !

I have a target, defeat you, and nothing will stop me ! And if I had to die, be sure you'll come with me !

I can't understand how you can defeat ten of Neter but you'll pay for that offense, I will give you the most painful death !

WATERS' REDEMPTION !!

You can fight all you want, the water coffin will drain all your energy.

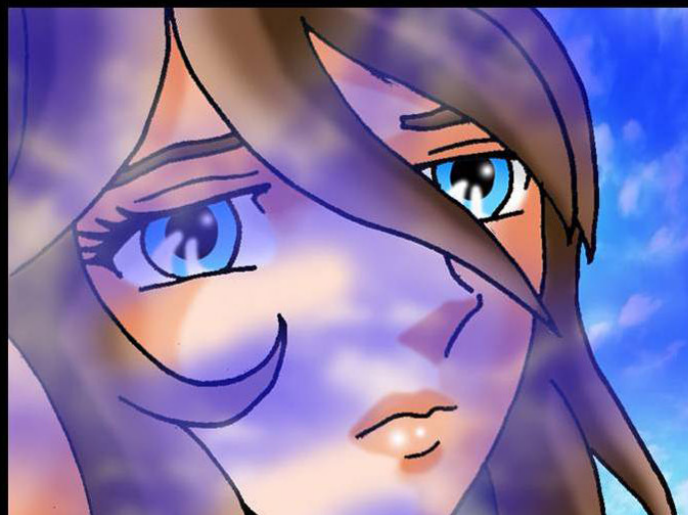

You'll only have a more painful death !

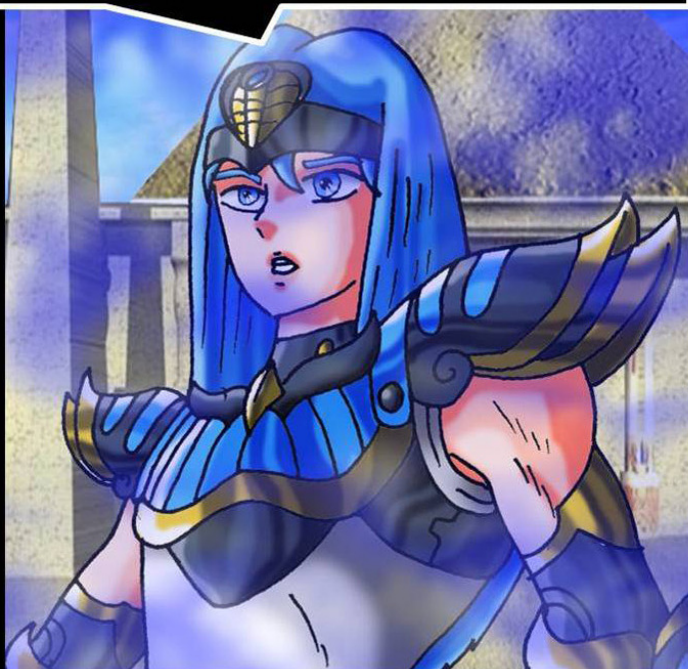

If I can concentrate all my energy in one discharge, I think I could unbind water moles which are making this coffin and liberate me from this trap.

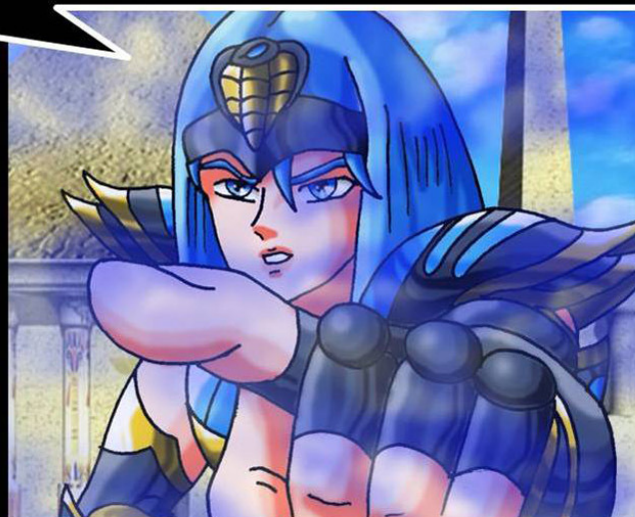

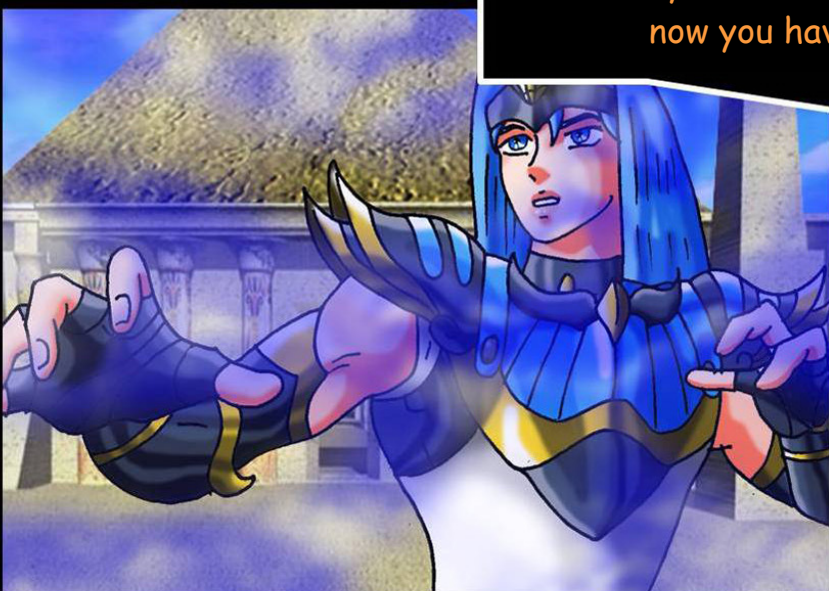

No one until now had been able to break my water coffin.

Release yourself was only a reprieve before your death, now you have no more energy to face me !

I do not need energy to defeat you ... By freeing me from your coffin, I filled all this place with hydrogen... I only need a small spark to make you disappear and as I told you earlier if I die, I'll carry you with me !

LIGHTNING DISCHARGE !!

Brigitte, you also sacrifice yourself. I'm sorry by can't help you more, all I can do is get out June from this place.

What kind of leader am I to don't be able to protect those who believed in me !

Don't worry, you'll soon join your partners !

I'm really not in the mood and I have no time to lose with that guy !
