

NETERAARU
THE ARRIVAL

Defeats show us even more than the best training. Saints must have an indomitable spirit, a spirit ready for challenges, to fight and overcome his own limitations. But the basis of the saint is his cosmos and his promise of protection to the goddess Athena in order to bring peace. A saint must finally have a noble heart, while overcoming its weaknesses and kindness to get a real strength.

Shaina !
At least you woke up !

What happened ?

Although you could defeat our opponent, you couldn't bear all the wave energy coming from Athena Exclamation.

What happened with Marin and Spartan ?

Marin woke up
very hurt but Spartan didn't survive to the attack...

Unfortunately, they took Athena's shield.

Except stop any attack,
this shield can not stand
them useless.

We'll get the shield back !

Don't misunderstand me guys,
but one of these guys almost destroy the Sanctuary, besides how will you do once you arrive on their kingdom ?

We can help
you !

Who are they ?

Silver Saints !

Such as Orpheo and Albore, Admiral Arashi is considered as one of the most powerful silver saints in all the Sanctuary...

There were two years ago, the Grand Pope had sent his team Brigitte, Mothallah and Oliver, to recover cloths missed in various battles.

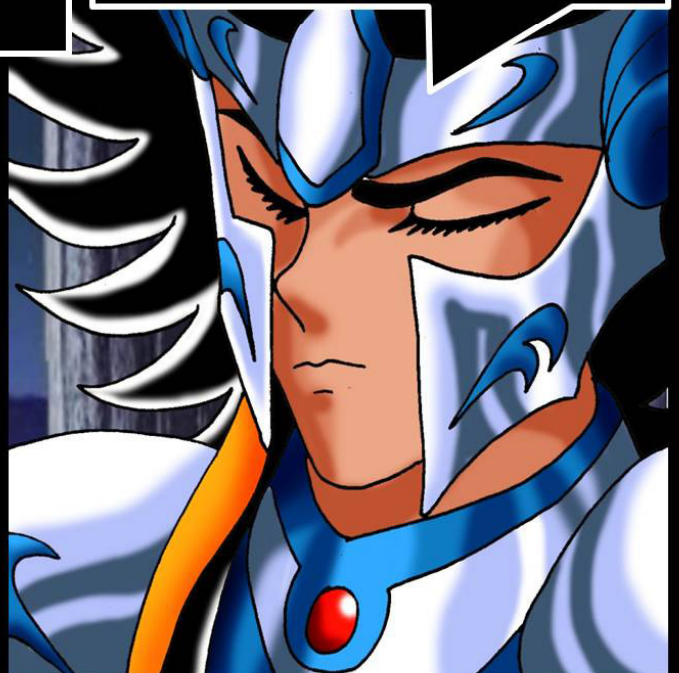

When we realized that the Sanctuary was under attack, we decided to abandon our mission and come back to help you, but we're obviously too late.

Admiral, we would like you to take us in the Egyptian lands !

Are you kidding ?
You, Bronze Saints,
with your bodies full of scars and
destroyed cloths,
only cause disturbs
to us.

Mothallah, I think you should show more respect for those who have protected the Sanctuary at the peril of their lives in our absence.

If you are sure of your decision, then find us at the dawn at the port, we'll wait. But for now, treat your wounds and get some rest.

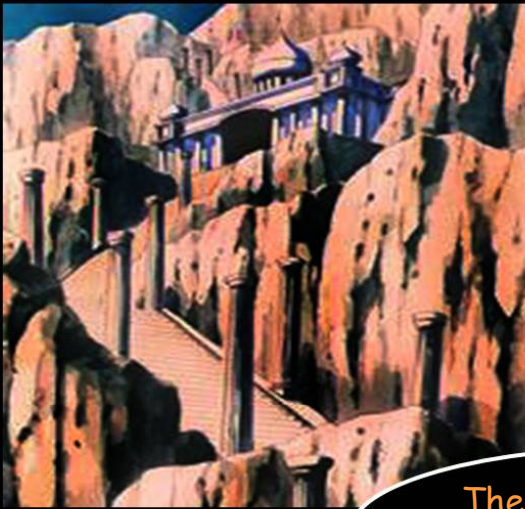

If I use the blood of Athena scattered at the foot of the statue of the goddess, I can repair their cloths tonight !

And I will heal the wounds of Marine and Shina.

So now it's the time to recover our honor !

Mediterranean Sea :
SS Argos Delta

I know you dislike the Bronze Saints, but I just want you to control yourself.

Yes Sir.

I'm not going to lie you, none of us are strong enough to fight the Egyptians.

This is a mission without hope of return.

But we'll not stay
without doing anything !

Mister, promise
me that you'll finish this alive !

Admiral, land at 15 knots, we are approaching
our destination !

City of Abydos

We are informed that some saints arrived on our lands.

So, what are you waiting to welcome them ?!

Temple of Osiris

Someone is watching us
since when we arrived and I recognize that cosmo...

Oliver will use his power
to lead us to the shield.
We all know that we'll find obstacles in the way
and you will have to continue this way no matter what it can happen.

Temple of Khnum

Time no see Arashi !

Now I remember
from who is this cosmos !

Everyone must continue their mission, this fight is between me and Akhenaton !

You'll have to kill me back when you'll have an opportunity Arashi...

Admiral...

Remember your mission,
don't stop !

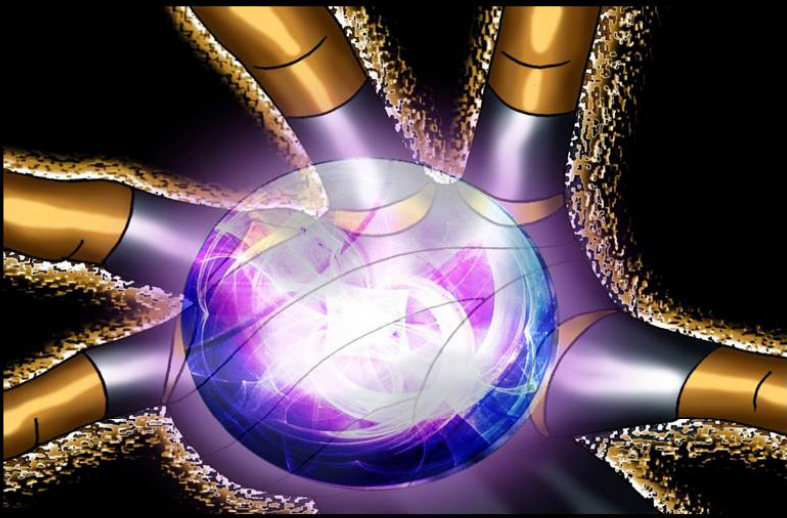

Prepare to die
Arashi !

KA EXPLOSION !!

You couldn't defeat me before and you can't defeat me now, I'll show you a real attack...

MASHING WAVE !!

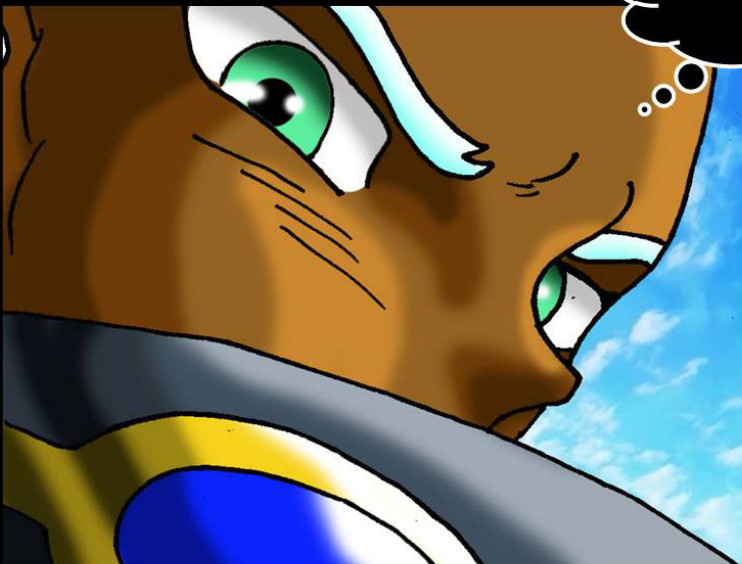

You had better give up this fight...

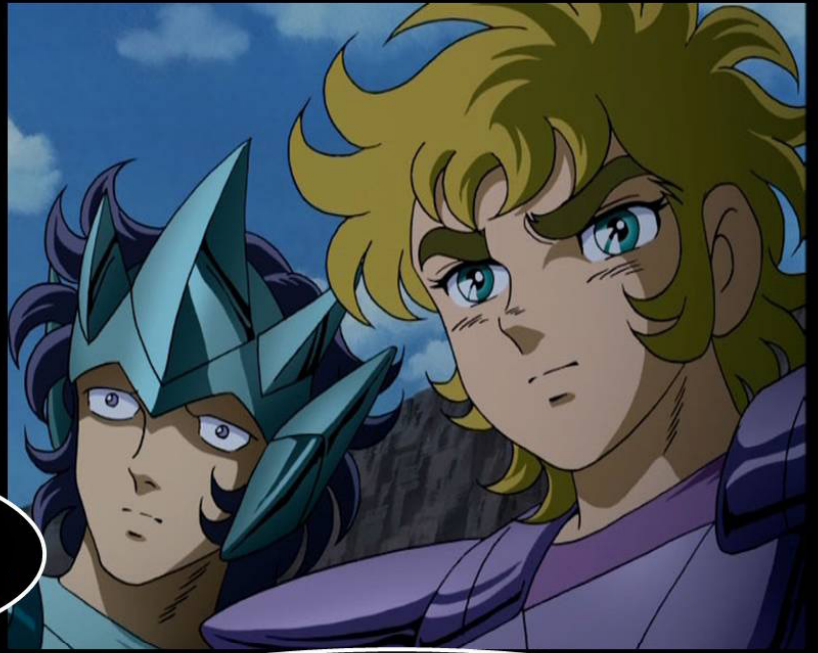

I can't lose this time...

We should go back to help the admiral.

Brigitte is right, go ahead and try not to die !

We will wait for you !

KA EXTRACTION !!

Admiral...

Brigitte !

Do you need that your soldiers give their lives
for you ?

Damn
Akhenaton, now
I'll kill you !

SWIFT ONE !!

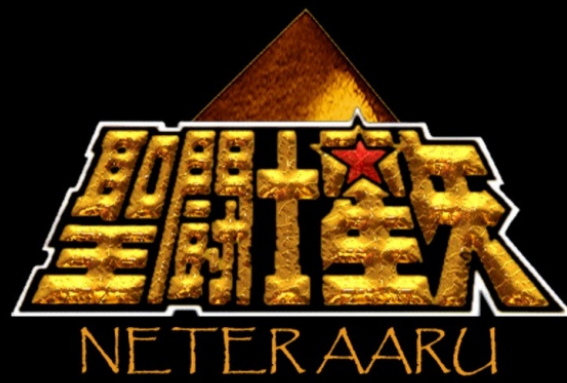

It's time to welcome them...

SHADOWS VORTEX !!
