

聖闘士星矢

NETERAARU
REVELATION

Gods have given me an unexpected opportunity and I'll take it. I'll use all my power to fulfill my ambitions... And I'm going to appropriate the whole planet ! I'll not have any difficulty to direct others, they will obey to all my orders. Thank to their stupidity, I will get rid of Athena and Osiris. I'm going to realize my dream ! I will reign over all the Earth beside Isis and I will become the most feared of all gods. This is my revelation.

What...?
My Master Nebka
can't be died !

Whoever you are, you are going to pay for that !

You can call me Merenhor of Seth and if the death of your master is so sad for you, in an instant
you'll join him !

STELLAR SHOCK WAVE !!

Did you really believe you had a slightest chance to defeat me ? I have defeated your master, your friends and the Goddess that you say to protect.

What are you talking about ?

I was present when Athena and her saints fought against Hades.

In mythological times, I was defeated by Horus helped by the twin gods Hypnos and Thanatos because they thought that I was a threat for Hades' plans.

They condemned me to be petrified inside a statue for eternity, but when the three gods died, I was released from my prison.

It was the moment
when I met Athena and your friends.

What you did to them ?

I sent their bodies
across continuous time space !

Now, give me your scepter
or I'll do the same thing with you !

Your dreams will never become reality because there will always be brave people ready to fight against people like you !

You must be very brave to attack the Osiris' sanctuary alone !

Already I can feel your presence my dear Isis.

Don't do one step more !

You'll die uselessly...

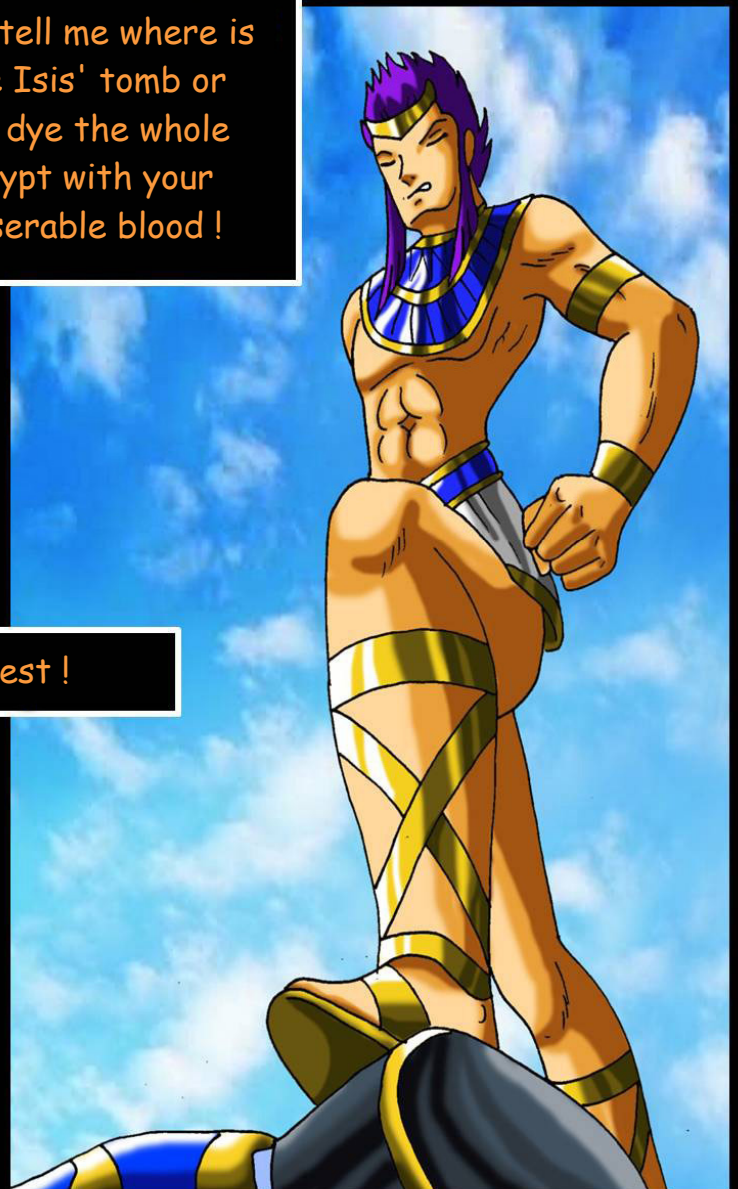

NILE'S BARRIER !!

Now tell me where is the Isis' tomb or I'll dye the whole Egypt with your miserable blood !

Highest Priest !

After so many centuries,
we are finally gathered.

Wake up Isis, we'll rule
the world together !

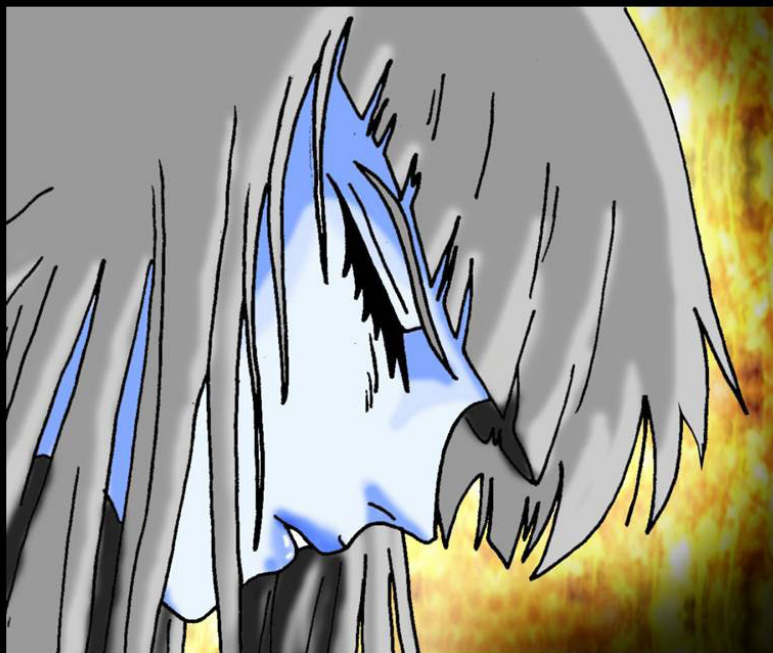

For now, it would be appropriate that the goddess Isis was not aware of my presence.

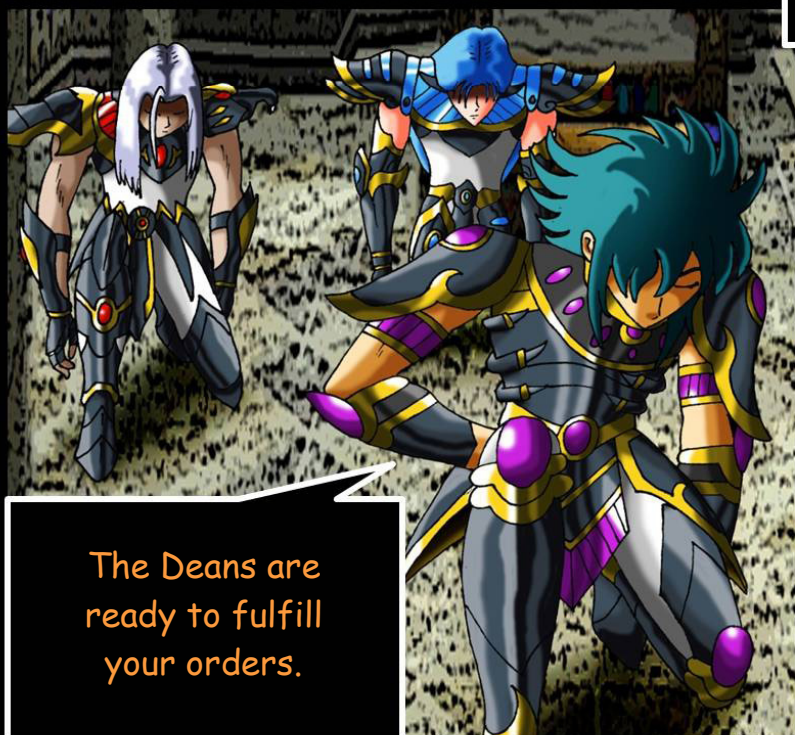

For that, I'll take the nemes of Seth.

Nemes : head-dress used by the pharaohs to represent their power.

To realize my plans, it's necessary to bring back together the new celestial guardians.

The Deans are ready to fulfill your orders.

Deans : High range soldiers charged to protect the kingdom in the absence of Neter Aaru.

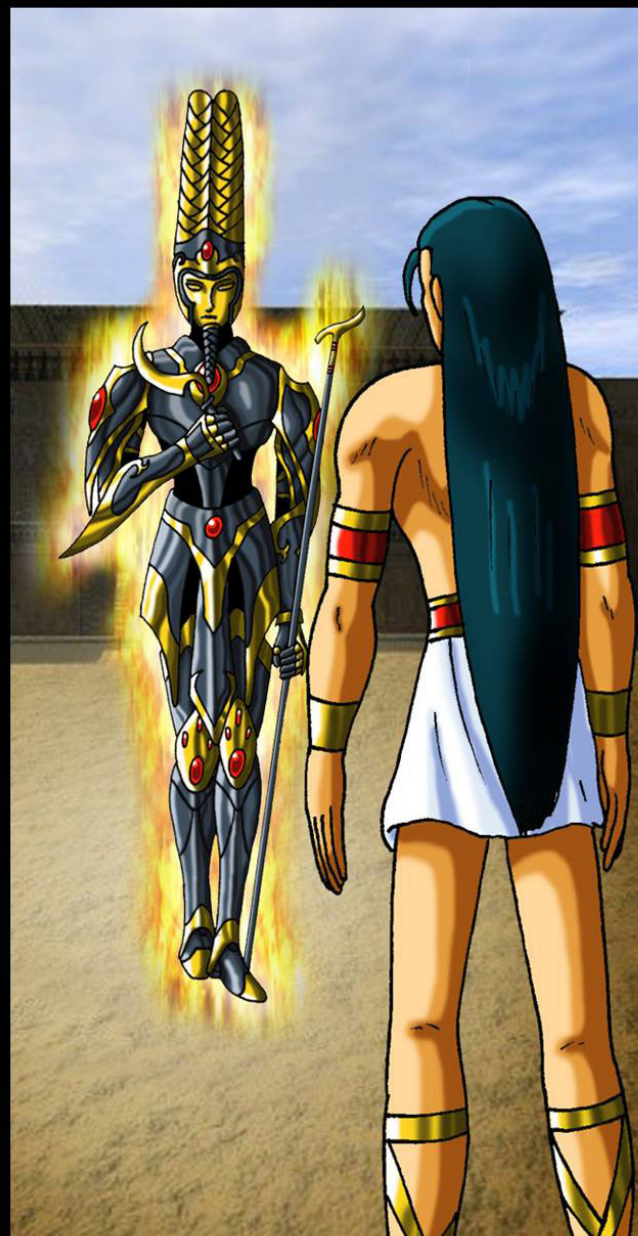

Wake up
Neter Aaru !

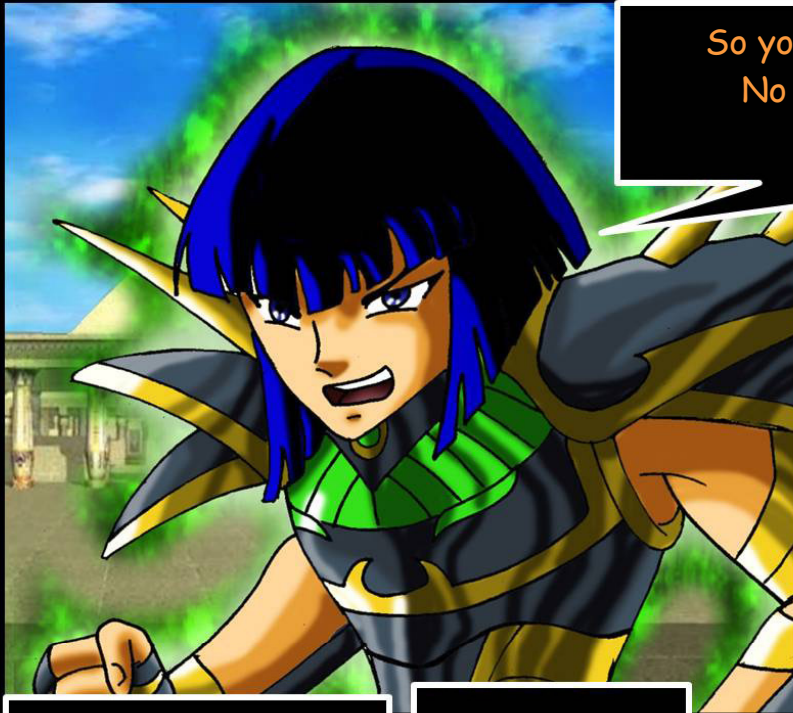

I knew that the goddess Isis would try to bring life to my brother Osiris, that's why I hidden my identity under Merenhor's name until the Neter take the Athena's shield, causing a war that will decimate forces on both sides.

And I'll eliminate myself the few survivors, then I'll finally can rule the world with Isis, free of the presence of Athena and Osiris.

So you're the reason of all these deaths !
No suffering will be sufficient to pay for what you done !

Is Menkaura one of the Neter ?

It's a long story...

This is the opportunity
I was waiting.

Oliveeeeeer !

We came very far to be stopped by someone like you !

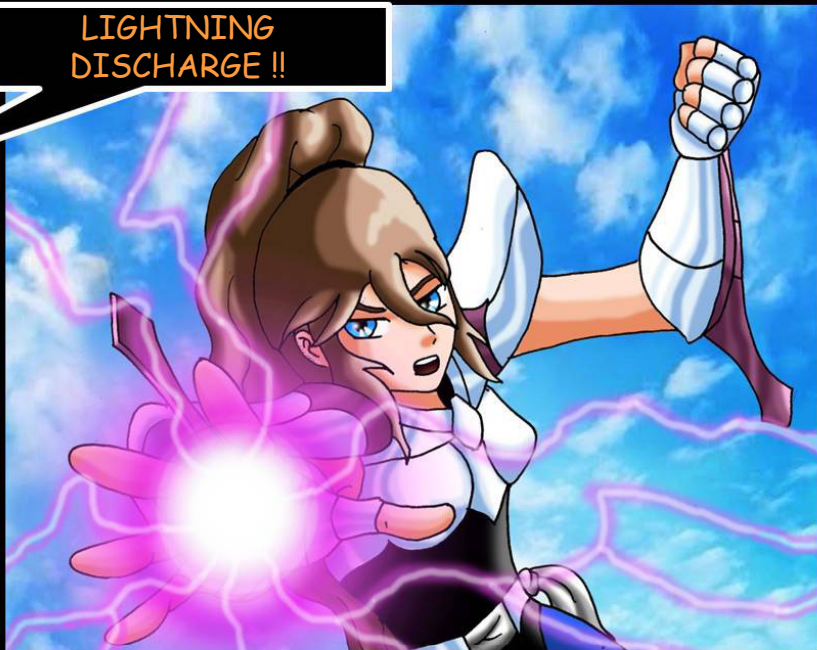

Juneeeeeeeeeee !

LIGHTNING DISCHARGE !!

For a while,
I worried with these ones...

If our Meshas are too weak to defeat
you, I Amenemhat of Hathor, will take charge of you !

We are three while you're alone, you think you could beat us Amenen... Anmene... Aneme...

Why have you not a simpler name ?!

Are you hurry to die dwarf ?!

You'll pay for your insolence !

Let us take charge of them !

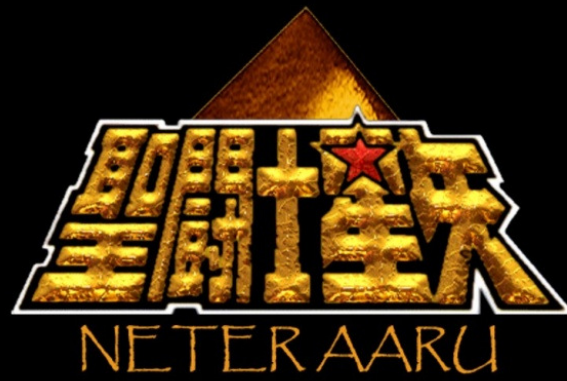

Sejemeb of Apset

Usekaf of Selket
