

NETER AARU

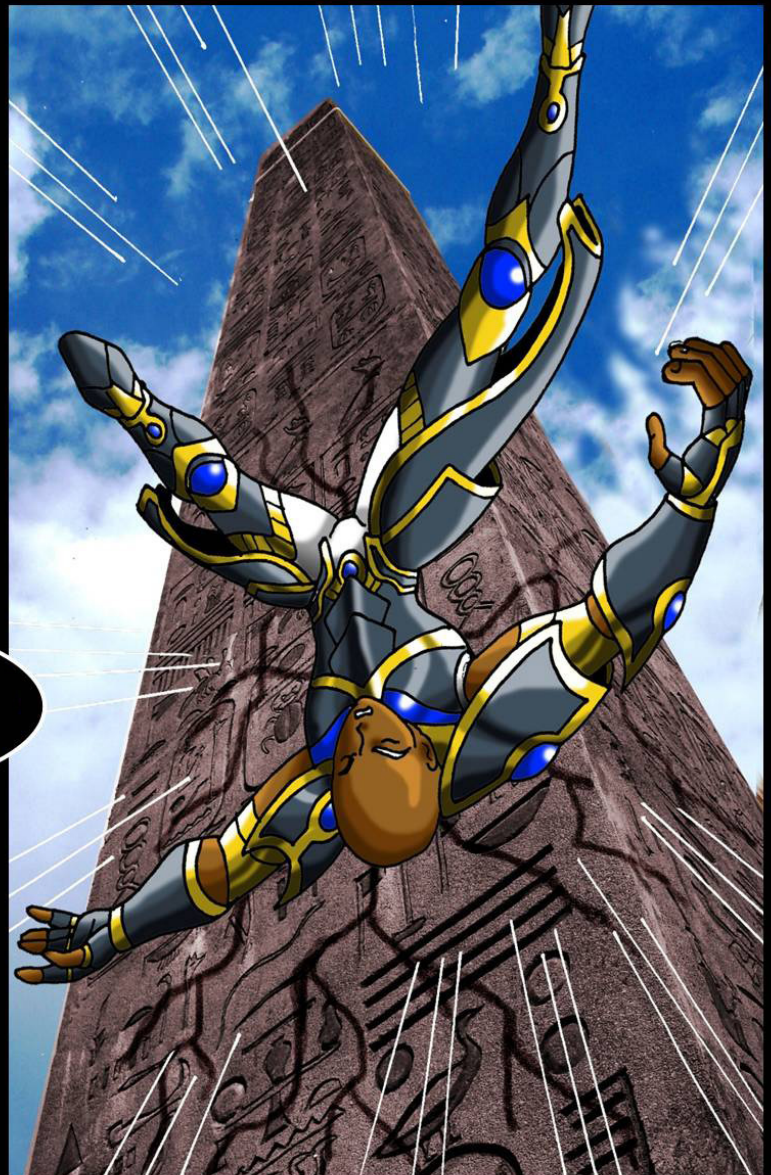

ENEMIES

Why do you insist in fighting ? Do you mean to protect this poor and damned land ? Do you think this land deserves that you risk your poor and damned lives ? Or you believe in the moment in which we could find peace without crimes, do you believe it ? Then all of you are just utopist.

If I have to die, I'll take you with me !

Admiral !

Take Brigitte's corpse to a safe place and stop interfering in this fight !

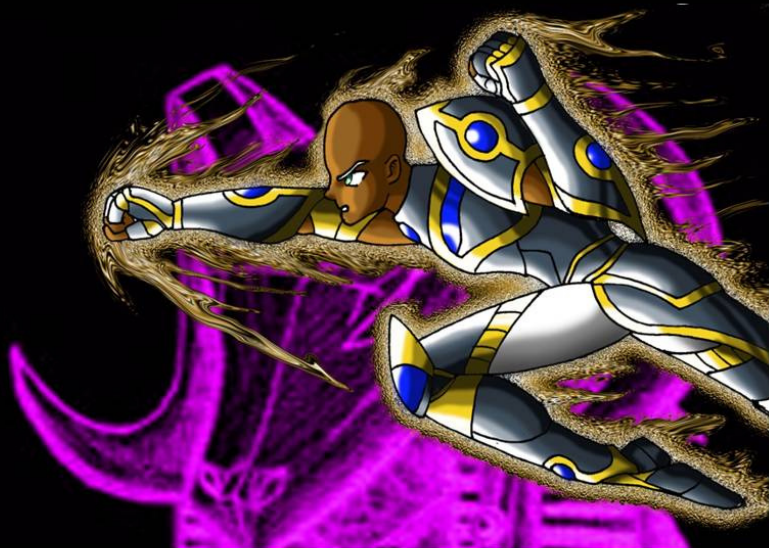

She will return to the normal world only if you defeat me...

It'll be a pleasure !

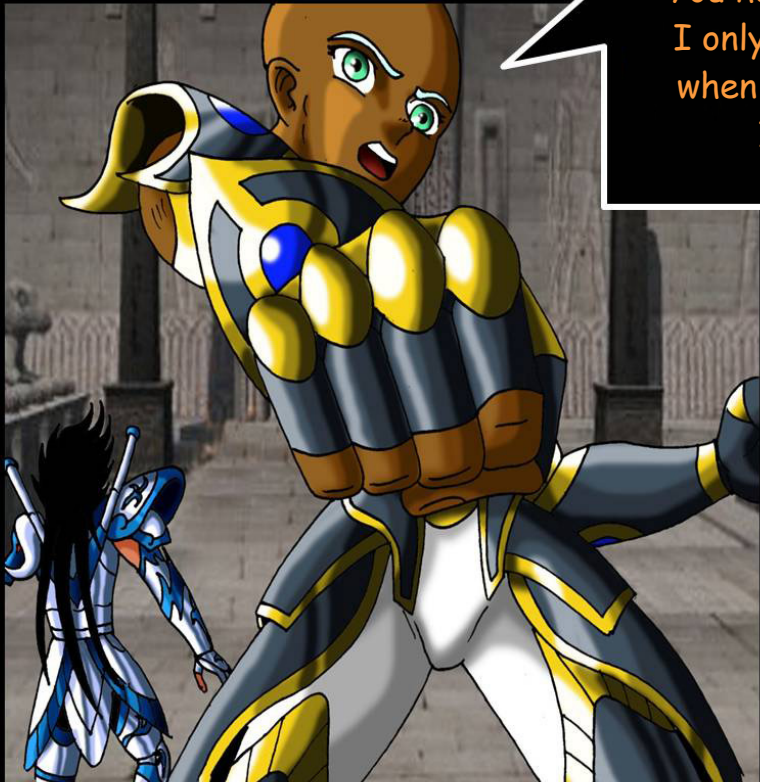

You have always been a good opponent Arashi,
I only regret that it had to end this way, but when our souls will reborn again in this world
I would like us to be friend again...

Until that day
Akhenaton...

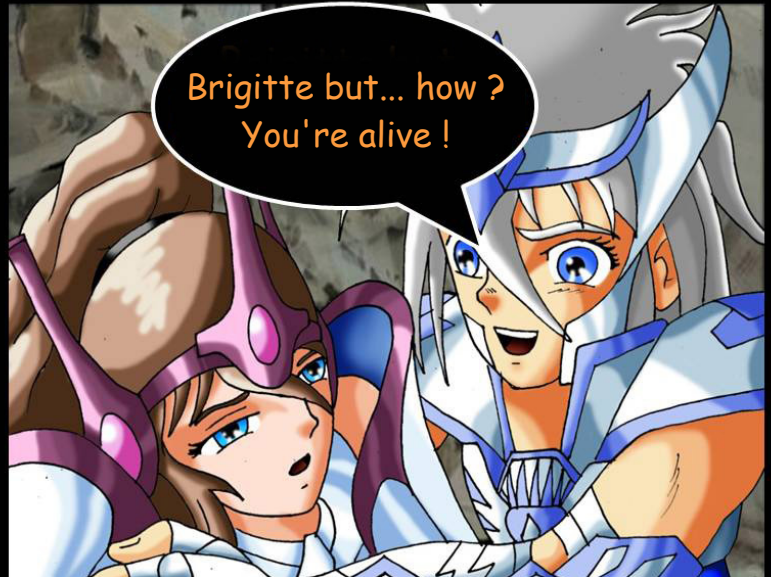

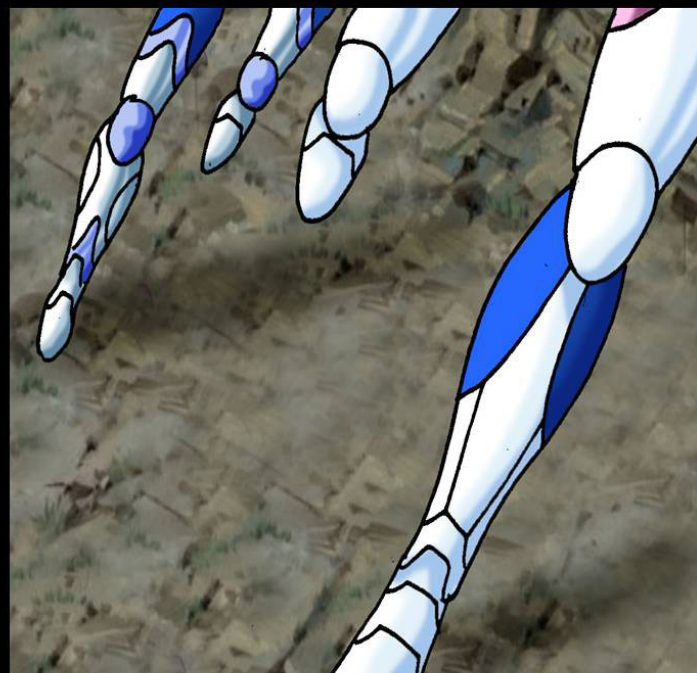

Admiral !

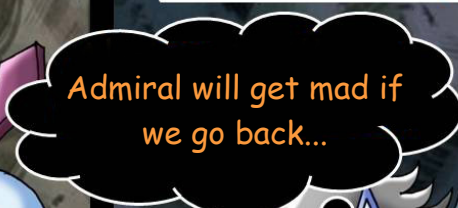

When I interfered Akhenaton's attack to the Admiral, my soul was caught.

Brigitte but... how ?
You're alive !

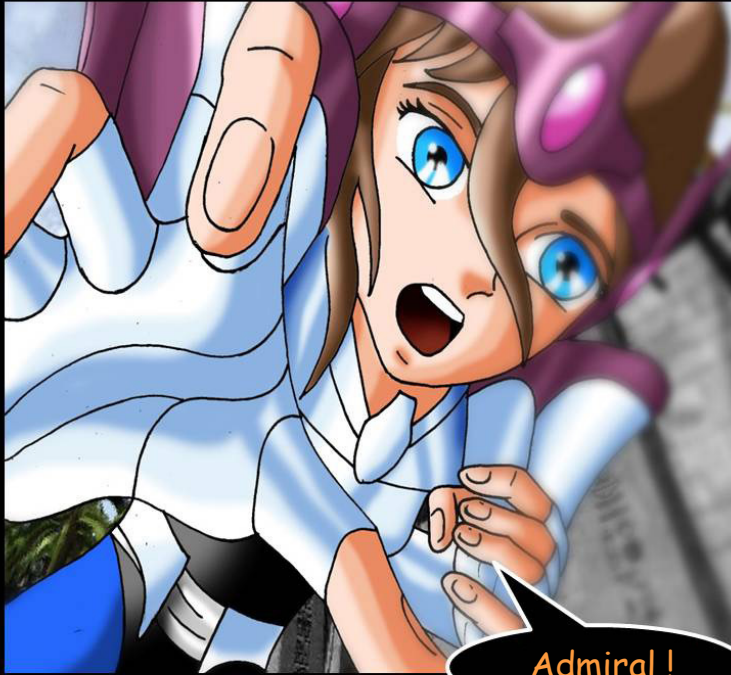

If I could get free, that means the battle is finished, we should go to help the admiral !

Admiral will get mad if we go back...

Admiral !

How do you feel ?

He's still alive but much harmed...

I'll be ok, I only need to rest...

ABYDOS DESERT

At last you wake up ! The vortex of darkness brought you here.

Master !

I have only one question, why did you betray me ?

Answer !

It's simple, with Athena's disappearance, Earth will stay in a total chaos, this world needs a new god with an iron fist and establishes a new order and I think I am part of that order.

I'll show you my iron fist, traitor !

Are you trying to attack me with the same that I taught you by myself ?

Then, I will extinguish your cosmo forever !

HORUS' EYE !!

While I'm alive, I must get up !

EXTINCTION !!

I'm sorry Jabu, but it's the only way to wake up your real cosmo-energy...

Jabu, wake this power that hides out inside of you, blow your cosmos up till the infinite, mankind depends on you now, wake up !

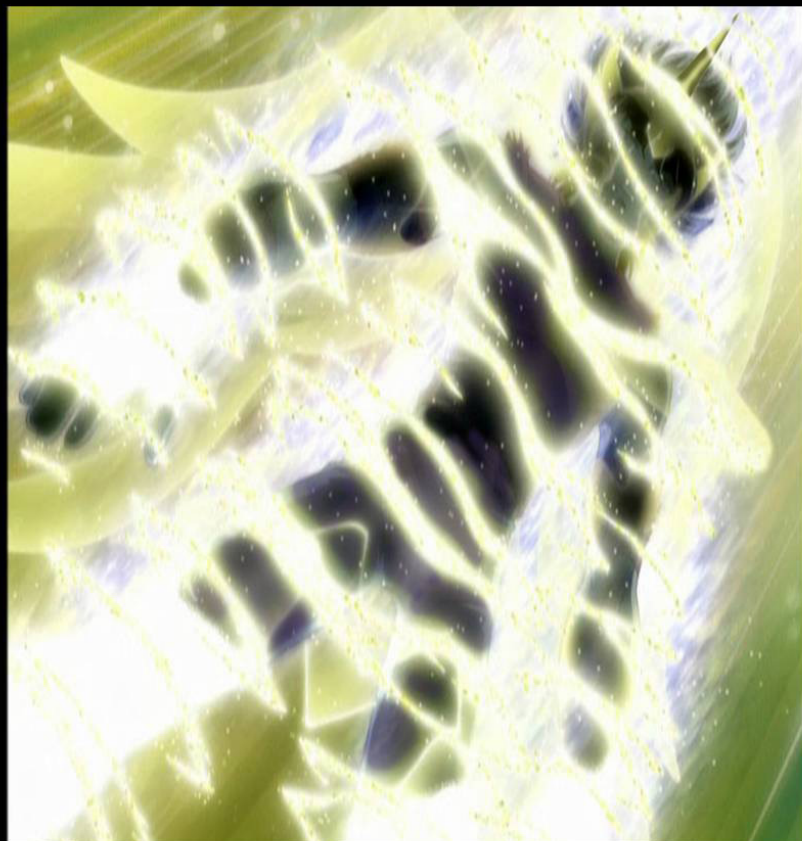

Now I understand...

My cloth has received Athena's blood !

The unicorn cloth has evolved to reach its ultimate form !

Show me that you are able to use it !

EXPLOSION !!

Amiral...

I can feel it through your cosmos, Master,
this time you can not stop my attack...

RIDING UNICORN !!

You have overcome the seventh sense,
it seems I have made a mistake...

After all this, I think humans can not be under the shadows of a god like Osiris.

Now, you have to hurry up and avoid Osiris to wake up, but don't trust yourself too much. There aren't still many opponents to defeat, more than all you take care with Merenhor of Seth.

See you soon, Master.

I can leave the world's destiny in your hands Jabu.

Now you have new friends,
Nebka, you are not capable to represent Horus !

Everything is going as I planned...

Aries' Temple

Kiki, Shaina and Marin's situation is getting worse, I don't think they can resist longer...

I know only one person who can help up.

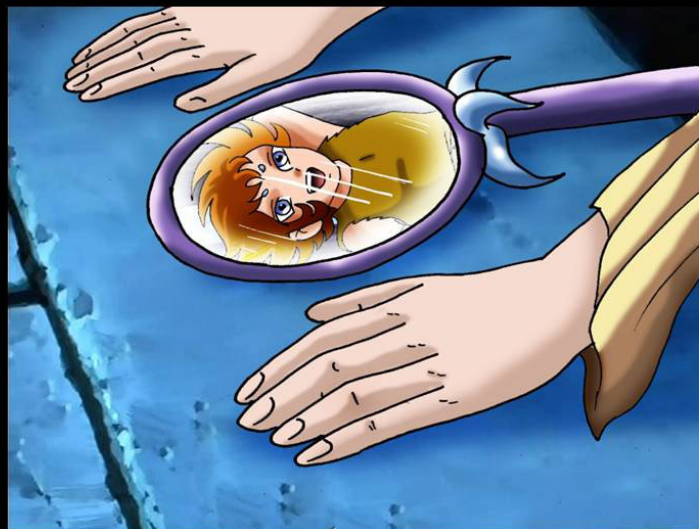

But the possibility of finding him is as low as the possibility that he could help us...

Dryad. Parnaso Mountain, outside the Sanctuary.

I'm closer than what you think, Kiki...

The time has come for me to back to the Sanctuary !
